Original Sketch And Handicraft Exhibit

Members of Arlington Woman's Club Display Their Talent at Annual Home Talent Day.

For the annual Home Talent Day of the Arlington Woman's Club, Miss Edith Winn, chairman of dramatic committee, ably assisted by the members of her committee, presented "Spring Gambols." It was in the form of a vaudeville entertainment, each number being announced in the professional style by two "pages," impersonated by Mrs. W. K. Thayer and Mrs. H. A. Townsend.

The first number, "A," was termed a "radio sketch," "Smile a Little Bit." It was written by Bertha Wade White, a member of the Woman's Club, and one of its former recording secretaries. Mrs. White has written several plays, but none have been more cleverly conceived or carried to a conclusion than this. It was teeming with bright lines and in the hands of the cast selected, it proved one of the best things given by the club members in many a day. The scene was laid in a living room at 6.45 a. m. Time, the present Mrs. George Tewksbury and Mrs. George A. Clark as radio enthusiasts, were delightfully funny and pleased their audience, each with their splendid bit of character work. Mrs. John Biggs as the borrowing neighbor, who has everything for her omelet but the milk and eggs, made her work telling, while Mrs. William G. Brooks as the announcer was capital. Mrs. John M. Dick was selected as the singer in the cast, thus carrying out the idea of a morning with the radio. Mrs. Gilbert Weale and Mrs. Edwin Allen were at the piano during the presentation of the sketch.

15th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Allen Celebrate With a Dinner Dance.

On Tuesday evening, April 20th, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Allen, at 32 Lake street, Arlington, was the scene of a very attractive social function given in honor of their crystal wedding anniversary. In the sun room, in which over sixty guests from Arlington, Malden, Brookline, Lowell and Boston, including Mrs. Procaccio of Italy, sister of Mr. Allen, were entertained with a dinner served by the Hardy Catering Co., the decorations were in pink, carried out with wedding bells, gauze ribbons, candles and cut flowers, pink sweet peas being used on the table, which was a dream of loveliness. The favors were in crystal. Previous to the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and their daughters, Dorothy, Eleanor and Edith, received. Mrs. Allen was in a peach colored georgette gown and carried a large and beautiful old-fashioned bouquet. The daughters were in pink and carried small old-fashioned bouquets.

During the dinner, Miss Dorothy Allen sang the "Gypsy Love Song," accompanied at the piano by Mr. Smith, a church organist from Lowell. Music during the dinner and for dancing, which followed the dinner, was furnished by Pood's four-piece orchestra. During the evening, Mrs. N. Roberts and Miss Elita Thompson, soloists, of Lowell, favored the company with a number of selections that were exceptionally fine. The daughters of the Allens also entertained with dance numbers, dressed in gold ballet costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen were the recipients of many beautiful pieces of crystal, in addition to many flowers. They were married fifteen years ago in Arlington, by Rev. Nathan E. Wood, D. D., and have always resided here.

Dedication of the Church of Our Saviour

On last Sunday, April 18th, at 11 a. m., the Right Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts, dedicated the new church of the Church of Our Saviour as well as several memorials, and confirmed a class of twenty members. A congregation that completely filled the new building was present.

The first part of the service was conducted by the Rector, Rev. Warren N. Bixby. The lesson was read by Mr. Franklin P. Hawkes, Principal of the Junior High West, who is Lay Reader at the Church of Our Saviour.

Mr. Elwell, one of the Wardens of St. John's church, the mother church, spoke briefly, bringing congratulations from St. John's and also speaking for the hospital campaign.

There followed the dedication of the chancel and memorials. An altar-rail was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson. Mrs. Hutchinson will long be remembered in the Church of Our Saviour, not only for her own saintly life, but as the type of consecrated motherhood. A eulogium was given in memory of Genevieve and Ruth Kellogg. The clergy staff was given as a memorial to James W. McKenzie. Mrs. Hunt, the choir director, and organist, gave a stall for the choir. Another choir stall was given by Bishop Babcock, and several by the Episcopal Club of Boston.

Following the dedication, Bishop Babcock confirmed the following: Mr. Prentice L. Garland, Mr. Elmer E. Lewis, Miss Monroe, Warren Hunt, John Rowntree, Eugene Richards, Francis Traverse, Ruth Garland, Eloise Kellogg, Ethelyn Barber, Doris Ritchie, Dorothy Allen, Lillian Morine, Ruth Spence, Ruth Stanley, Jessie McKenzie, Evelyn Norman, Isabel Sargent, Elizabeth Bolton, Eleanor Orde.

Bishop Babcock spoke briefly to the class telling them that while we were dedicating this visible church building, it was very fitting that we should also be dedicating our lives as living stones in the true church of God not made by hands. He then preached the dedication sermon, taking as his text the verse describing the erection of King Solomon's Temple. "And the house when it was building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither; so that there was neither hammer nor ax, nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was building."

The new additions to the church consist of an enlargement of the seating capacity by about sixty seats, the building of a large chancel which contains the choir and the altar, a sacristy, and downstairs, a kitchen, a stage, enlargement of the auditorium, a furnace room, a coal room, and a modern steam-heating plant. It is a great improvement. There is now needed but $415 to complete the payment for the building. It is expected that this will be raised by July first when the bill comes due. Much credit is due to the building committee, which has been most efficient and has kept the cost of the work far under the original estimates. The committee was fortunate in having as its chairman, Mr. Henry E. Richards, whose experience as an architectural engineer was most valuable. The other members of the committee were Mr. Benjamin Leitzert, Mr. Henry Rowntree, Mr. Herbert B. Kellogg, and the Rev. Warren N. Bixby.

Another committee which contributed largely to the success of the building operations was the finance committee, which had charge of the

Symmes Arlington Hospital

Campaign to Raise $150,000 Launched Amid Enthusiasm That Spells Success.

There is probably no one in Arlington who is not aware of the campaign now in full swing to raise $150,000 for Symmes Arlington Hospital. If there is, they will not be long in ignorance, for volunteer workers are going to visit every house in this town with the hope of enlisting interest in the hospital in a substantial way.

The campaign was officially opened Tuesday evening, when a "selection dinner" was held in the old Town Hall, attended by all the division commanders, adjutants and committee men, each with their assistants, that made a company numbering three hundred. The general officers occupied seats at a table on the platform, together with invited guests. The Hardy Catering Company furnished the dinner, during which community singing was led by Dr. Bruce I. Lawley, with Arnold E. Thiesfeldt at the piano.

Horatio A. Phinney, chairman of the campaign, as well as president of the trustees of the hospital, was the presiding officer. Brief speeches were made by former Congressman Frederick W. Challenger, of Cambridge; Judge James P. Parmenter, of Arlington, who has been one of the trustees of the hospital since it was organized, also the president of the board of trustees of the Choate Hospital of Woburn. The key-note of each speaker was to have faith in the project in hand and to endeavor to arouse interest in the hospital. If these two things were accomplished, success would come.

Wilson D. Clark, the treasurer for the campaign, announced that over $24,000 had already been pledged. The names of those who had thus started the campaign with their pledges, were read.

Mr. Frederick E. Barber, the campaign director, outlined the plan of work for the men and women who have undertaken the raising of the $150,000, which is the most perfect system for team work that has ever been planned in Arlington. It should bring the goal aimed for.

Wednesday evening found the men and women gathered in Town Hall for the supper, which will be given each evening during the campaign. Rev. Matthew Flaherty gave a most interesting talk, and pledged his personal support to the campaign. Pledges amounting to $28,951.50 were reported at the dinner on Wednesday evening.

The large sign on the church green at the corner of Pleasant street and Massachusetts avenue, carries a picture of the hospital, the section in deep red showing the present size and the lighter red what it can be with the accomplishment of the desire of the executive committee.

Large contributions have been received, but it is the pennies and dimes that make the dollar. No sum is too small to be appreciated by those who have this campaign in charge.

Long Debates At Town Meeting

Change of Zoning By-Laws and Salaries to Police Department Bring Out Discussion.

The second adjourned Town meeting held April 15, opened with the taking up of several of the articles relating to changes in the zoning laws and there was considerable argument stirred up relative to changes. One article asked that the section on the northerly side of Massachusetts avenue, now included in the general residence district, running west from Henderson street, be put in the business section. The Planning Board, through Mrs. Herbert W. Reed, a member, stated that this board was in favor of making the change and the meeting so voted. It was voted to include in the general residence district the land known as the Mead, property between Gray and Seavey streets. A long debate arose relative to making a change from single residences in land recently opened up on Menotomy road, School street and Robbins road. There are a number of single houses now in this section and the owner of the development asked that a few lots be taken out of this area and placed in general residence section. The Planning Board reported against this being done, and after considerable debate the meeting voted to follow the recommendation of the Planning Board.

The meeting was asked to place the land of Mrs. Maria Irwin at the top of Mount Vernon street in the general residence section, and this the Planning Board objected to, because of the fact that there was a great amount of opposition to making any change. Here again, arguments arose, but the meeting voted to follow out the recommendation of its Planning Board.

Opposition arose relative to putting the property at Rawson road and Broadway into the business area. The Planning Board recommended that this be done as the other property in that section was in this area. Residents of the immediate section presented a petition asking that this be retained in the general residence section but it was voted to put the section into the business area.

The debate of the evening came when it was asked that the zoning laws be changed relative to a plot of land owned by Angelo Pasquantonio at Adams square, junction of Summer street, boulevard and Forest street. The Planning Board was against this being done and there was considerable opposition to the placing of the plot into the business section. When the zoning laws were accepted this plot was put in the general residence section. When the owner had presented his case and outlined what he intended to do with

Farewell Reception

On Thursday evening, April 15th, there was held in the Calvary Methodist church, a farewell reception to its pastor, Rev. A. J. Strait, who has been called to the Robinson Memorial church in Malden, and to Mrs. Strait, that was a splendid tribute to them. The couple were assisted in receiving the large company by Mr. Norman Hill, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. Hill, besides Mrs. Henry E. Gamester, president of the Ladies Aid; Mr. C. A. Teter, president of the "300" club, and Miss Teresa Spring, president of the Paquinose Club. The decorations of pink and green were effectively arranged by the Paquinose Club. The Ladies Aid Society sponsored the reception, the arrangements in charge of Mrs. E. E. Munro.

Mrs. Strait was remembered with a large bouquet of roses, while Mr. F. A. Ziegler, a member of the Official Board, in behalf of the parish, presented Mr. Strait with $100 in gold. A delightful musical program was given by Miss Mildred Brookings, soloist; Mr. Carl S. Nelson, pianist, and Miss Graham, pianist. The ushers of the evening were Mr. Fred Robinson, Mr. John Hyslop and Mr. A. H. Morris.

Short addresses were made by Rev. C. F. Patterson of the First Universalist church; Rev. Charles T. Hall, of the St. John's Episcopal, and Rev. H. T. Coontz, former pastor of the First M. E. church at the Heights, but now of Medford. All the ministers of the town were invited to be present.

THE HELPING HAND

To the observer of chronicler of the trend in public affairs, there is no one thing that gives ground for a hopeful outlook for the future more than the evidences on every hand of a broadening and a deepening of that impulse behind the movement launched more than a generation ago by the late Edward Everett Hale in the little society he formed and named "Lend-A-Hand." Those societies have multiplied to world-wide extent, but better than their own growth has been "spike" emanating from them which in recent years has brought this country at least to the point where appeals to kindly impulses meet with a quickness in response and a largeness in quantity never before reached in the world's history. How far the world has been the gain along civic and moral lines by this putting in practice the words of the Master, it were hard to estimate, impossible to tabulate.

These closing days of April are giving to the people of both Arlington and Lexington opportunity to "Lend-A-Hand" and we are quite sure that more people than ever before will realize "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

During this week the campaign for a large increase in the funds of Symmes Arlington Hospital has begun. Carefully arranged for and successfully launched on Tuesday evening with large pledges already on record, we are confident the $150,000 required to meet increased needs will be met. Remember, your visiting solicitor is a volunteer.

Lexington Public Health Association starts its campaign from citizens generally for needed funds next Monday, and we bid them God-speed and bespeak for them a response worthy themselves and the cause.

Arlington Visiting Nursing Association also starts next week to test appreciation of service rendered in years past, demands for which have grown with the growth of the town. To reach we say "Have faith and it will be accomplished."

PATRIOT'S DAY CELEBRATION

There was not much here last Monday to keep reporters busy writing an account of Arlington's observance of the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington in which a considerable number of her people had a conspicuous place 151 years ago. It consisted of the gathering of hundreds of our citizens in front of the building, the large majority of whom were young, to await and witness the arrival and reception of representatives of Paul Revere and William Dawes at Robbins Memorial Town Hall. Selectmen Nelson B. Crosby, Frederick W. Hill and Hollis M. Gott gave a cordial welcome to the riders, Mayor Nichols of Boston and those accompanying him, and escorted the guests into the main auditorium, where ladies of the local D. A. R. Chapter served a light refreshment. The ladies assisting in serving the refreshment were Mrs. Eugene Vinal, chairman; Mrs. Egbert E. Stackpole, Miss Frances Wyman, Mrs. Joseph Wyman, Miss Cooper and Miss Priscilla Russell. Four other comrades of Post 36 were all the representatives of that vanishing host that Commander Parker could muster to share in this event.

Prior to the arrival of the visitor, the Middlesex Sportsman's Band gave an interesting and inspiring program of martial music and a group of patriotic airs while the reception was being held, and when the riders went on their way, bells were rung.

The display of flags was general, the placing of flags in sockets along the sidewalk on either side giving Mass. avenue a gala and holiday appearance.

The only other event was a visit by a uniformed squad of Post 39, American Legion, to the Old Cemetery on Pleasant street, where are interred the remains of the Minute-Men of 1775 who lost their lives when driven into the Jason Russell house and were shot to death by British soldiers.

ARLINGTON BOARD OF TRADE

This is One of Our Town's Helpful Organizations.

At the tenth anniversary of the Arlington Board of Trade, Elliot R. Barker, the retiring president, in his address of welcome, gave a brief resume of what has been accomplished not only by the Board of Trade, but by the Business Men's Association, which was the name of the first organization that held its first meeting March 25th, 1908, out of which grew the Arlington Board of Trade, Incorporated.

There is sometimes heard the remark, "what does the Arlington Board of Trade do for Arlington?" If there are any who doubt that it has not been active in its ten years they have but to scan the lines that follow, which in brief was told by Mr. Barker at the banquet held two weeks ago.

The presidents who served during the life of the Business Men's Association were: 1908, James O. Holt; 1909, David Buttrick; 1910 and 11, the late Walter K. Hutchinson; 1912 and 13, Charles H. Stevens; 1914, Rufus W. Blake, who also served as its secretary from 1909 until 1911 inclusive; 1915, N. J. Hardy, who was holding office in 1916, when the Arlington Board of Trade was incorporated, and who was one of the prime movers in having the organization take this step.

The first president of the Arlington Board of Trade was the late James M. Mead, who served two years, as did the late Roscoe Y. Conklin, in 1918 and 19. Arthur Birch, also an enthusiastic worker in the Board of Trade, was its president for 1920 and 21. R. Walter Hillard served as president in 1922 and 23. Under his administration, the tenth anniversary of the Arlington Advocate was made the occasion for a banquet in Town Hall, when the editor and publisher, Charles S. Parker, was honored with a banquet. Mr. Hillard started the slogan, "Arlington the Best Town on Earth," that has been a big boom for the town.

While the Association was known as the Business Men's Association, better streets, lights and transportation were agitated and secured. This was in 1909. The Association joined the Massachusetts State Board of Trade at that time. In 1914, the Association started the movement for a grandstand on Spy Pond field and it was erected in 1913. Better traffic conditions were secured and the boulevard from Medford street to Summer street was championed by the Association. In 1912 it made its first contribution to the free bed at Symmes Arlington hospital, and has been continued each year. The Association also collected $600 from its members for the Belgian Relief in 1914. When Board of Trade became incorporated, it purchased the Bryant estate on Court street, and has held the property ever since. During the epidemic of the flu a few years ago, it gave the building over for an emergency hospital. In 1917 it raised $487 for the War Camp Community Fund and assisted on the public safety committee. The Board of Trade was the first organization to start the campaign for a "Roll of Honor" for the boys in Arlington who did service during the World War. The Board has given its aid in town planning; to secure improved mail service and zoning laws. It endeavored to secure a five-cent fare limit in Arlington.

Perhaps the most active work along civic lines has been accomplished during the years 1924 and 25. The first was the uniform decorating with the American flag along our main thoroughfare on holidays. Also the adoption of an emblem for the Board of Trade. Its assistance in making Arlington Forum Council a financial success; its interest in establishing a fund for musical instruments for pupils in Arlington schools, which makes it possible for a pupil with the desire to play some instrument to do so at no expense to him; fostering school athletics as well as scholarship by an annual banquet which is given in the spring to pupils who have won the privilege of attending.

In closing his speech, Mr. Barker read the following original poem: Did you ever think as the sun goes down, In the far off West in Arlington, That you owe a debt you can never pay To the Town where you live, to the men of the past? To the ones who are near and dear to the last. So give of your time for the public good, Be ready and willing to do your share For every good deed you do in Town, Will come back to you in added renown, And the Town will be better for what you've done. And your thoughts will be high with the setting sun.

Messrs. Editors:

This is an extract from a letter from Mrs. Marguerite Turner Morra of Turin, Italy, to her mother, which may interest your readers.

"Maria Gray has sent me a Pasadena paper, where she has spoken a good word for Mussolini and having the paper copy an article which was in the 'Italian Mail.' Good for her!

It is a shame that Mussolini and his regime is so misunderstood in foreign countries, some of the articles in the magazines, which I receive from America, are especially misleading. Only those who have lived here, traveled about and know the Italian people, have lived through the after the war time and present time, can realize how Mussolini has saved his country and has given Italy a re-birth to hope, prosperity and happiness.

"TONY" GUIRICCHI NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Antonio Guiricchi, aged 72, of 20 Grove street place, had a close call on last Friday morning. "Tony" as he is known about town, is caretaker for a number of families in the Jason street section, and rides to and from his work on a tricycle. Friday morning, at Mass. avenue and Jason street, the tricycle was hit by a truck operated by Herbert E. Preble of 19 Exeter street, and Tony thrown under the rear housing of the machine. When extricated from the machine, which was a mass of twisted iron, it was found that he had a bad cut on the top of his head. He was rushed to the Symmes Arlington Hospital, where, for a time, it was feared that he might have suffered a fracture of the skull or concussion, but he was able to leave the hospital the following day, having escaped with bruises.

ARLINGTON SOCIAL ALLIANCE

New Officers Have Been Chosen

The activities of the Social Alliance connected with the First Parish Unitarian church have closed for the season. Mrs. Arthur J. Wellington, who has served the Alliance as president for the past two years and with such acceptance, declined to fill the position longer, feeling that this important place should be shared by others in the Alliance, who, by their office, are brought more closely in contact with the woman's work of the denomination.

Mrs. William F. Homer has accepted the position as president. The other officers are as follows: Vice-president, Mrs. Edward A. Bailey; treasurer, Mrs. Harold G. Storke; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert H. Treadwell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter H. Sears; auditor, Mrs. A. M. Walcott. Most of the personnel of the committees remain the same with the exception of the Social committee and the Religious Education committee. The members of the former are, Mrs. Walter K. Hutchinson, Miss Eleanor Homer, Mrs. W. K. Hutchinson, Jr., the latter Mrs. Evelyn M. Namara, Mrs. Remington Plumer, Mrs. Wentworth Carr.

FINE RESIDENTIAL WORK.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

On the way from the Heights to the Centre a day or two ago, I saw a policeman in a motorcycle taking a boy who had been hurt in the head, to a doctor's office. He did it as tenderly as a trained nurse and as speedily.

A few weeks ago, just opposite my house, several policemen handled a man on a stretcher, who, in a fit of despondency, took his life. Every day some kindly service is rendered by these guardians of our safety to our needy citizens. We are wont to think of them as ferreting out crime, or protecting us in the crowded life of today, and we accept their service or sleep more soundly because they are around, without even a word of thanks. Yet, they do their needed service without a thought of reward. And though we may not speak the word, yet we appreciate their friendly service. And though we may pay them for their service (none too much), yet no service can be paid for. They give themselves to us at no small danger, unmindful of compensation. Let us not forget our faithful and efficient policemen.

ARLINGTON YOUNG WOMAN WINS HIGHEST HONORS AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Miss Theresa Krastin, of Arlington Heights, has been awarded the highest honor in activities at the College of Practical Arts and Letters of Boston University, where she has just been elected president of the student government. She is a graduate of Arlington high school and one of the most active and popular girls at the college.

Among the offices which she has held are the secretaryship of the girls' athletic association, the vice-presidency of her class, the presidency of the French club, and membership in the student government board representing the Writer's club.

All this was last year. This year, as a junior, she is editor-in-chief of the Sivad, the college year-book. Because of the point system by which students are not permitted to hold more than a certain number of "points" in student activities, she resigned the positions of treasurer of the athletic association and secretary to the student government board, in order to accept the election as Sivad editor.

Miss Krastin is an honor student at the college.

ELKS PRESENTED WITH GIFTS

Installation of Arlington Elks Made The Occasion for Expressions of Appreciation for Services Rendered.

At the installation exercises of Arlington Lodge of Elks, held last week in Town Hall, one of the most interesting features was the presentation of gifts to some of the officers as well as to the lodge. The first was to Richard L. Powers, who has been acting grand esquire to Mr. H. Wesley Curtis during the past season, and who at this time presented him with a handsome dresser clock.

Mr. Powers, after thanking his chief for the gift, in behalf of Arlington Lodge, then presented Mr. Curtis with an electric coffee percolator with silver service and tray. The lodge was given an electric clock for the new Elks home by Alina Cuillo through Mr. Curtis. The donor received a great ovation. John J. Foley, in behalf of the lodge, presented the acting grand esquire, Bernard McHugh, with a beautiful water color and bouquet, while Ernest Pearce, for the lodge, presented the retiring exalted ruler, James E. Donahy, with a gift as a token of his work during the past year.

The officers inducted into office were: J. William Swain, E. R. Richard L. Powers, E. L. K. J. J. Foley, E. L. K. Charles M. Ward, E. L. K. Francis Leo Dalton, sec.; Joseph M. Ahern, treasurer; Daniel J. Hurley, tiler; William O. Hauser, trustee. The appointive officers were: Daniel P. Barry, esquire; Harold J. Rogers, chaplain; John H. Holt, organist; and Ernest L. Parsons, inner guard.

BOSTON COLLEGE CLUB

Arlington's Organization Give a Pretty Dancing Party.

The newly organized Boston College Club of Arlington, held its first dance in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, on Friday evening. During the evening there was a snowball, balloon and spotlight dance, besides favor dances, all of which added much to the attractiveness of the occasion. The proceeds of the party will be donated to the Boston College building fund. The Alumni of the college turned out to this affair in large numbers, which helped the members put the party on a good financial basis.

The officers of the new club are: John P. Dempsey, president; John E. Connor, vice-president; John E. Dowd, treasurer, and John Sullivan, secretary.

The committee in charge of the dance was made up of Joseph C. Barry, chairman; Joseph Farrington, John Doherty, James O'Leary, Thomas Hennessey, Francis Vossalik and John J. O'Brien.

The matrons were: Mrs. J. E. Dempsey, Mrs. J. L. Barry, Mrs. John Leary, Mrs. F. J. O'Brien, Mrs. James Dowd, Mrs. F. J. Hennessey and Mrs. William Doherty. The patronesses were: Mrs. John J. Viano, Mrs. Louis C. Brine, Mrs. Michael F. Lane, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Henry W. Lane, Mrs. Mary V. Butler, Mrs. Daniel W. Grannan, Mrs. William Doherty, Mrs. Thomas Hennessey, Mrs. William H. Brine, Mrs. T. J. Connor and Mrs. Daniel J. Buckley.

"THE DISTRICT SCHOOL"

"The District School" was presented in G. A. R. Hall on the evening of April 16, for the benefit of Charles V. Marsh, Sons of Union Veterans and the Auxiliary of the camp, the proceeds to go toward defraying the expenses of Memorial Day. The talent was all out of town, but hits in the songs and lines were made local and that provoked fun. From the minute school opened, the members of the class caught the audience, which showed its appreciation with applause. Oscar J. Teel was head of the committee, assisted by Mrs. Clara Oakman Powers and a large committee of sons and auxiliary.

Spring Weddings

QUINN—TIERNEY

Sunday evening, Miss Alice Regina Tierney, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Tierney, of 60 Brattle street, and Joseph F. Quinn, son of Patrick Quinn, of 138 Warren street, were united in marriage in the rectory of St. James church, Arlington Heights, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Maurice J. O'Connor. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth G. Tierney, as maid of honor, and Bert J. McGreevey was best man. Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride, this being confined to the immediate families only. The couple received a great many very handsome and useful gifts, including cutlery, silverware, lamps, pictures, furniture and several very substantial checks and gifts of gold.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 133 Warren street.

The bride is well known in Arlington, and a graduate of the local schools. For several years she has been secretary to Mr. Woodhead of the Arlington Gas Company. The groom is also a native of this town and a graduate of the local schools. He is in business here.

DEANE—LUTZ

On Monday, April 12th, Miss Myrtis Mae Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lutz, of 24 Hall street, West Somerville, became the bride of Mr. James Norman Deane, of 142 Highland avenue, this town. The double ring ceremony was performed at Newton, Mass., by Rev. R. L. Rae at 4 o'clock.

The bride wore a pale pink crepe de chine gown, trimmed with chintilly lace and pearls. Her bouquet was of pink and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Alfred Benson and the best man, Mr. Alfred Benson, both of this town.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, 24 Hall street, Somerville. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz of Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Reeves of Jamaica Plain; Mr. and Mrs. Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Sweeney of Somerville; Miss Annie Deane of Weymouth; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Churchill of Brockton; Mrs. Frank Nasman, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Benson of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Deane are spending two weeks in Maine.

WATSON—COLLINS

One of the prettiest of the spring weddings thus far was that of Miss Mary Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis J. Collins of 12 Schouler court, which took place Monday morning in St. Agnes church, when she became the bride of William J. Watson, of 9 Temple street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Watson of Chelsea. The nuptial mass, which was attended by a large number of friends of the couple, was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mathew J. Flaherty, who also performed the single ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Agatha E. Collins, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and George Smith of Providence, R. I., was best man. The ushers were Leonard Collins, brother of the bride, and Edward Hubner, brother-in-law of the groom.

The wedding marches and music for the service were played by Miss Helen Roche, organist of the church. Mrs. Katherine Donovan O'Hearn of this town was the soloist and sang "O Salutaris," "Ave Maria" and "O Lord I am not Worthy" during the mass, the latter being sung at the time of communion.

The main altar of the church was decorated with white and crimson carnations, also palms, all being arranged very effectively.

The bride, who is most attractive, looked lovely in her wedding gown of white satin and georgette. Her veil was of princess lace and was caught in place by a spray of orange blossoms, while she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor wore woodland rose silk with picture hat to match and carried pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, there was a short reception in the vestry of the church. At the home of the bride, the immediate families of the couple were served a wedding breakfast by the Hardy Catering Company.

The gift of the bride to her maid of honor was a ring, while to the best man the groom presented a set of silver mounted military brushes. The couple left on a honeymoon trip via automobile to New York and on their return they will make their home in Somerville.

The bride was born and educated in this town, and is a graduate of the High school. The groom is a native of Chelsea and holds a responsible position with the Forbes Lithograph Company.

WINGFIELD—SOLOMON

Last Saturday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock, Miss Vivian Margaret Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Llewellyn Solomon, of 10 Park place, Arlington Heights, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Thomas Wingfield, of 152 Austin street, Cambridge, at the home of the bride's parents. The double ring service was performed by Rev. William M. Macnair of Cambridge in the presence of only the immediate families of the couple. The bride was in a gown of pearl gray canton crepe and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Miss Lila M. Jones of Somerville attended as bridesmaid. She was in pale blue crepe de chine and carried pink roses. Mr. James MacMillan, of Woburn, was the best man. The house was decorated in cut and potted plants, tulips predominating.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield will make their home at 114 Oxford street, Cambridge.

Announcement

Owing to being so busy with construction work, during the season of 1925, I was compelled to refuse a large number of orders for garage construction.

To those who may be planning to build this Spring, it is a good time to place your order now, that your new garage may be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the season, also that the grading, seeding and shrubs, can easily be taken care of in season.

If you are going to build with blocks, I would recommend using our water proof, square granite face, which makes a job that you will be pleased with.

All my granite face blocks, are faced with clean graded granite.

A card in the mail, or a ring on the phone and we will call and give you an estimate.

It was this committee that conducted the very successful fair last fall.

Practically every member of the church made a contribution. There was no canvass for funds, and very little was received from those not members of the church.

If not, you are cheating yourself and not getting all you are entitled to for the money you spend.

Remember that every rent check you hand to your landlord pays part of the cost of the house in which you live.

Perhaps the house has been more than paid for already. BUT YOU DON'T OWN IT.

Isn't it about time that you quit cheating yourself that way.

Let us tell you how you can have both the rent receipts and the home that you are paying for.

Don't let another year slip by and from $300 to $800 of your good money go with it and nothing to show for it but rent receipts.

"Plan and Profile of Park Avenue Extension, Arlington Heights, Mass. Scale Hor. 1"=40' Ver. 1"=6', Jan. 1926, Chas. E. Gannett, C. E., 53 State St., Boston."

under provisions of Chapter 249 of the Acts of 1897.

By order of the BOARD OF SURVEY, John A. Easton, Clerk.

LONG DEBATES AT

the property, the meeting, by a vote of 98 to 47, granted the making of the change into the business section. The owner announced that he intends to erect a home for himself on the plot and in another section install a filling station. The meeting was asked to make a change relative to the zoning law regarding the land of Mrs. Maria De Napoli on Summer street. The Planning Board was opposed to putting this from the general business section into the business district owing to the depth asked for, the board holding out that 100 is the maximum allowed for business area and the petitioner had asked for 150 feet. The permit was not granted.

The meeting was asked to place a lot of land on Lake street, into the business section, and the Planning Board opposed this and the meeting upheld them and the permission was not granted.

At the previous adjourned town meeting, the matter of accepting Webbrow road, after a lengthy discussion, was laid on the table. It was taken from the table at this time. Former Town Counsel Philip A. Hendrick, for the residents of the street, presented the matter to the meeting, which was attended by every resident on the street, who were anxious that this street be accepted. After some argument, it was voted to appropriate $9500 for the original construction of said public way.

The following sums were voted for constructing streets already accepted at the previous sessions of this annual town meeting:—Amherst street, $8665; Amsden street, $8300; Bonad road, $10,350; Freeman street, $5940; Orchard terrace, $5638; Pelree street, $12,065; Pondview road, $9000; Rawson road, $29,630; Waldo road, $8750 and Webster street, $30,300.

Salaries and expenses of the various town officers were next taken up with no dissenting voice until the matter of raising salaries in the Police department was reached. The Finance committee recommended an appropriation of $69,197.50. This included a raise for the Chief, Lieutenant and three sergeants, but not for the men. Charles Fitch presented a substitute motion asking that this amount be raised to $72,297.50, with the understanding that the chief, lieutenant and sergeants were to receive an increase of twenty-five cents per day and the patrolmen who have served under four years, twenty-five cents per day, and the patrolmen who have served over four years were to get fifty cents per day, this to begin May 3. The legality of this was questioned. Town Counsel White read a statute relative to the matter and informed the meeting that it is within the power of the Selectmen to determine the amount of pay the police shall receive. Nelson B. Crosby of the Selectmen, strongly opposed the matter and had figures from police departments in other towns and cities to bear out his arguments. Arguments for the increase were presented by Thomas Good and William Ellett, and after a long debate, the matter was taken by rising vote with 77 in favor of the increase and 62 against, but there was one change made prior to the taking of the vote. Mr. Fitch having removed the section of the amendment relative to the pay of chief, lieutenant, sergeants and patrolmen and the meeting voted the straight amount as recommended by Mr. Fitch in his substitute motion.

The other appropriations made were: Finance committee salaries, $800; expense of this committee, $400; Reserve fund, $10,000; Salaries of the Selectmen, $2000 (which is an increase from $650 last year); Salaries of the clerks of this board, $2144; Expenses of the board, $1400; contingent fund, $1500; Town accountant, $3520; Legal department, $21,000, which includes $1000 salary for the town counsel; Elections, town meetings and registrars, $5100; Robbins Memorial Town Hall, $10,283, and Fire department, $66,483.75, of which $58,119.75 is for salaries.

FUNERAL OF MRS. L. D. COTTON

ATTENDED BY HOST OF FRIENDS

The funeral of Mrs. Nina C. Cotton, wife of Leslie D. Cotton, was held last Sunday afternoon, April 18th, at the First Baptist church at 3 o'clock, Rev. Henry Sterling Potter, D. D., pastor, in charge. The Apollo Quartet sang "Nearer, My God to Thee," "Abide With Me" and "Till We Meet Again," which were favorite hymns of Mrs. Cotton. The church organist, Mr. Mark S. Dickie, accompanied. A very large number attended and the entire front of the church was blanketed high with most beautiful floral tributes, silent tokens of sympathy, that also expressed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mrs. Cotton was a member of the First Baptist church, having been a Sunday School teacher and also an active member of many of the church societies. For three years she had served on the Board of the Committee of the American Home Department of the Arlington Woman's Club and during that time she introduced new activities, many of the classes being carried on in her home. She was also one of the Board of the Women's Aid Association of the Symmes Arlington Hospital and was to have been one of the team captains in the present campaign. ARLINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

At the Better Homes Exhibit in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Wednesday, April 28, the American Home Committee have charge of the Kitchen Dept. Questions and general discussion will follow.

This forenoon program and exhibit was arranged by Mrs. Leslie D. Cotton, the late chairman of this committee, who passed away suddenly last week and who has accomplished such efficient and helpful work in her department for the last three years. Her committee will carry out the entire program as she had planned.

A VETERAN RETIRES

After close connection with the business interests of Arlington for more than fifty years, Mr. Frank P. Winn is making for himself a home in a new location. He has sold the estate on Russell terrace to a Mr. Mesich of Somerville and gone to North Falmouth, where he has purchased a house and an acre and one-half of land. During his extended residence here, Mr. Winn has been closely allied with the official life of the town and its societies. Forty-two of these years he has been connected with the fire department, coming from the ranks, to a member of the board of engineers, where he is still serving; he was the first vice-president of Arlington Cooperative Bank and has only just now resigned his place as assistant cashier.

It was because of his services to the bank that the directors, at a meeting Wednesday evening, presented Mr. Winn with a handsome and substantial easy chair to add to the load of furniture to be conveyed to the new home, and with it the best and kindest wishes, in the latter of which we most heartily join. "Frank" will leave behind him a host of good wishes. He has resided in Arlington 53 years. He will be missed at the provision store of James O. Holt, where he has been in charge for 25 years, previous to which he was the owner.

FRIENDLY FOLKS HOLD SALE AND SUPPER

The Friendly Folks connected with the Orthodox Congregational church, held a sale and supper Tuesday afternoon and evening in the vestries of this church. Mrs. Wilson D. Clark, the president, assisted by the board of directors, served a fine supper. Miss Helen Rice taking the lead. The tables presented an attractive appearance with potted regeraniums and red candles on each.

The sales tables occupied both the small rooms and were prettily decorated with crepe paper. The grabs were drawn from an artificial well that was cleverly constructed, while the handkerchiefs and delicious preserves and jellies were displayed in an attractive manner. These latter were made in the kitchen by a group of the "Friendlies," headed by Mrs. S. A. Fowle. All the sales tables had well selected articles that were easily dispensed of so that the affair was a financial success. Nearly the entire membership of the Friendly Folks assisted on the different tables. The chairman of each are named as follows:—Apron, Mrs. James H. Jones; fancy, Mrs. Frank Savage; underwear and jellies, Mrs. Ralph W. Day; food, Mrs. J. Stearns Cushing; handkerchiefs, Mrs. Henry Reeves; grabs, Miss Mildred Green; candy, Mrs. Arthur Forsythe.
